Jeffrey Epstein

- Jeffrey Epstein is a well-known billionaire who made his fortune as a money manager for the rich and famous.
- He is known to be very closely connected to some of the world's wealthiest and most influential people, from Bill Clinton to Prince Andrew to Donald Trump.
- Epstein had two private jets, the largest single residence in Manhattan, an island in the Caribbean, a ranch in New Mexico and a waterfront estate in Florida.
- Once a regular at Trump's Mar-a-Lago and an active supporter of the Clinton Foundation, Epstein is a registered sex offender now living in the US Virgin Islands.

- 2002: Trump tells New York magazine "I've known Jeff for fifteen years. Terrific guy. He's a lot of fun to be with. It is even said that he likes beautiful women as much as I do, and many of them are on the younger side. No doubt about it -- Jeffrey enjoys his social life."
- 2003: Vanity Fair reports that Trump attends dinner parties at Epstein's 71st Street mansion. New York magazine reports that Trump is among the guests at a 2003 dinner party thrown in honor of Bill Clinton; magician David Blaine entertains the "barely clad models" with card tricks, but Clinton never appears.
- 2004: Court documents reveal Epstein's address book, including 4 separate numbers for Bill Clinton; 14 phone numbers for Donald Trump including emergency numbers, car numbers, and numbers to Trump's security guard and houseman; 16 separate phone numbers for Prince Andrew, etc.
- 2005: A woman contacts Florida's Palm Beach Police Department and alleges that her 14-year-old stepdaughter had been taken to Epstein's mansion, where she was paid $300 to strip and massage Epstein while he masturbated.
- Police begin an 11-month undercover investigation of Epstein, followed by a search of his home.
- Police allege that Epstein paid several escorts to perform sexual acts on him.
- Interviews with 5 alleged victims and 17 witnesses under oath, a high school transcript, and other items they found in Epstein's trash and home allegedly showed that some of the girls involved were under 18. At least four tapes containing more than four hours of footage are uncovered.
- 2006: The FBI opens an investigation and begins interviewing potential witnesses and victims from Florida, New York and New Mexico.
- 2007: Ultimately, the FBI receives accounts from 36 girls (most between the ages of 13 and 17) whose allegations of molestation and abuse by Epstein include overlapping details, resulting in a 53-page federal indictment that could put Epstein away for life.
- It is later reported that Epstein enlisted his victims to recruit other girls for him. One such victim said "By the time I was 16, I had probably brought him 70 to 80 girls who were all 14 and 15 years old. He was involved in my life for years".
- Then US Attorney in Miami, Alexander Acosta, enters into plea discussions with Epstein, even as the FBI investigation is on-going and continuing to locate more witnesses and evidence.
- Epstein is reportedly banned from Mar-a-Lago.
- 2008: While plea discussions are still on-going, federal prosecutors begin new grand jury proceedings to review allegations that Epstein's attorneys are harassing the victims.
- The terms of the plea deal are finalized. Despite substantial evidence that corroborated the girls' stories, Epstein agrees to plead guilty to only one count of solicitation of prostitution and one count of solicitation of prostitution with a minor under the age of 18. He subsequently serves 13 months in federal custody, followed by a year of community control/house arrest. He must also register as a sex offender.
- As part of the deal, Acosta agrees to seal the 53-page indictment (later unsealed in 2015) and he agrees, contrary to federal victim's rights laws, to not notify the victims.
- Amazingly, immunity is also granted to "any potential co-conspirators".
- Epstein's victims only learn about the plea deal after-the-fact.
- Two women each file civil suits against Epstein alleging that they were sexually assaulted and raped when they were minors. These and several other lawsuits are eventually dismissed.

- It is later reported that Epstein “received highly unusual treatment while in jail,” including being allowed to serve much of his sentence in the county jail rather than a State prison, and being permitted to leave the jail 6 days a week to work at home before returning to jail to sleep.
- 2009: Epstein is released. At the time of his release, he is registered in New York State as a level three \(high risk of reoffense\) sex offender, a lifelong designation.
- By September, at least a dozen civil lawsuits have been filed by women who allege they were molested, abused, and/or raped by Epstein when they were underage.
- Mark Epstein, Jeffrey’s brother, testifies that Donald Trump had flown on Epstein’s plan at least once. Trump is subpoenaed in a case involving victim Virginia Roberts, who claims she was recruited as Epstein’s sex-slave while working as a $9-per-hour locker room attendant at Mar-A-Lago in the 1990s, and subsequently pimped her out to various friends of Epstein, including Prince Andrew.
- 2010: Flight logs from Epstein’s private jet, the “Lolita Express,” are obtained and published during civil lawsuits against Epstein. Records show an assortment of politicians, academics, celebrities, heads of state and world leaders flying on Epstein’s jets in the early 2000s. Among them:
  - o former President Bill Clinton (flew at least 26 times between 2001 and 2003, including 5 flights without Secret Service detail)
  - o former national security adviser Sandy Berger
  - o former Colombian President Andrés Pastrana
  - o lawyer Alan Dershowitz
  - o actor Kevin Spacey
- Epstein and his friends frequently fly to his Caribbean island, which becomes known as “Orgy Island”.
- It is reported that Epstein’s house and plane are filled with hidden cameras (e.g., inside clocks, bathrooms and toilets, etc.). A Jane Doe in one of the many civil suits filed against Epstein confirms that his mansion was wired with hidden cameras secretly recording orgies involving his prominent friends and underage girls, for the purpose of blackmail.
- Epstein is asked under oath if he has “ever socialized with Donald Trump in the presence of females under the age of 18”. He pleads the fifth.
- 2014: A federal civil suit is filed in Florida against the US for violations of the Crime Victims' Rights Act by the Department of Justice's agreement to Epstein's 2008 plea; the suit also accuses Alan Dershowitz of sexually abusing a minor provided by Epstein.
- 2015: A woman anonymously files suit in a Florida court alleging that Epstein has loaned her out to rich and powerful friends as an underage “sex slave,” and that she was repeatedly raped by Prince Andrew when she was a minor.
- 2016: A lawsuit is filed in California by a woman using the name Katie Johnson, claiming that she was sexually assaulted multiple times by Donald Trump, including having been violently raped at a party at Epstein’s Manhattan mansion in 1994 when she was 13 years old. Trump and Epstein both categorically deny it ever happened.
- The lawsuit is dismissed over technical errors and the plaintiff’s failure to pay the cost of the litigation.
- She files another lawsuit in Manhattan under the name Jane Doe. This lawsuit is withdrawn 3 months later, apparently without being served on the defendants.
- The case is then re-filed again by Jane Doe in New York.

- The plaintiff is scheduled to appear at a press conference 6 days before the 2016 election, but cancels the event, claiming that threats to her life kept her away. She drops the lawsuit 2 months later.
- 2017: Trump nominates Alexander Acosta as labor secretary.
- Acosta is questioned about the Epstein case during a Senate confirmation hearing and says of his decision to offer Epstein “As part of any plea, it is not unusual to have an indictment that says these are all the places we can go, yet at the end of the day, based on the evidence, professionals within a prosecutor’s office decide that a plea that guarantees that someone goes to jail, that guarantees that someone register generally, and that guarantees other outcomes is a good thing.”
- Acosta is confirmed by the senate.
- Court records show that Epstein paid out \$5.5 million to settle lawsuits with 3 women who alleged he had sexually assaulted them when they were teens. He then settles roughly two-dozen additional lawsuits.
- 2018: The Miami Herald identifies nearly 80 women who say they were molested or otherwise sexually abused by Epstein from 2001 to 2006.
- A state civil lawsuit by attorney Bradley Edwards against Epstein is set to be heard and the trial is expected to provide victims with their first opportunity to make their accusations publicly. However, the case is settled on the first day of the trial, with Epstein apologizing to Edwards; other terms of the settlement were confidential.
